Minsk, May 2010

National Information Days

- Not expensive
- Isolated (no networking)
- Dependant of the NCP's network
- Normally a represent from EU (generic)
- Few questions

International Information Days

- Expensive
- Networking
- The real EU experts from the domain present
- Lot's of questions

- How do you "brand" yourself?
- Have you prepared some intelligent questions?
- What will you bring back?

- If you're just listening - do not go!

Conferences and meetings

ICT 2010 Conference: key themes

Sharing visions of current and future research trends and exploring key policy options

Key themes for the 2010 conference:

- the potential of digital solutions to promote sustainable growth in a low carbon economy
- The continuing constructive role of ICT in the daily life of citizens
- the importance of public participation in the innovation process.

The conference will include special sessions presenting the European Union's funding priorities for the 2.8 Billion Euros of EU funding available for ICT research and development during 2011-2012.

These themes will be discussed and debated by leading figures from business, academia and politics. See, for example, the speakers who participated in ICT 2008
